

Life Together

Loa and Myral, summer 1929

Loa and Myral, summer 1929

Loa and Myral's marriage certificate from the Salt Lake Temple

Loa and Lyrall visited his parents, Charles and Annie, on their honeymoon trip

Myral picking his first orange in Orland, CA, June 1929

Loa at the CA capitol in Sacramento

Loa at the Grand Canyon on their honeymoon trip, summer 1929.

Myral and Loa on honeymoon trip

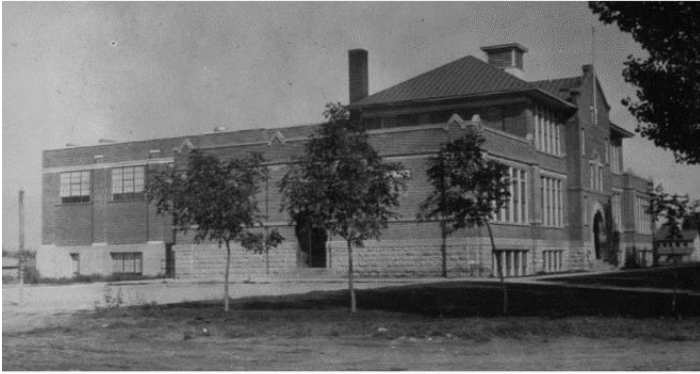

Loa and the Model A Ford on their scenic Honeymoon

Loa and Myral at States Tourist Camp in Portland, OR on their honeymoon trip.

Myral (left) and Loa (2nd from left) on Venice Beach, CA with friends

The McCammon, Idaho school where both Myral and Loa taught in 1929-1930 during their first year of marriage.

A mini banjo ensemble that Myral organized at McCammon

The cast of a show that Myral directed at McCammon. Myral is front, far right.

6

Aloha

Waikiki beach in 1930

Myral and a tourist train, 1930

Myral out among the sugar cane

Myral and Loa in 1930

Annie's Lei Stand at Waikiki Beach

Watching a dancer on the beach, 1930

*Waikiki and Diamond Head in the 1930s when the Clarks lived there. (photo on left)
The Royal Hawaiian Hotel was the most prominent building on the beach.
In 2014 (photo on right), the Royal Hawaiian Hotel (front, center) is dwarfed by high-rises.*

Loa and Myral lived at McKinley Court from Dec 1930 – Oct 1932

Myral (top, center) collecting coconuts with Kalakaua students, 1931

Myral (not pictured) continued producing elaborate plays at Kalakaua Jr. High School in Honolulu in 1930.

Kalakaua students performing the hula, 1930

The Honolulu Vocational School

Students working at a shop at the Honolulu Vocational School

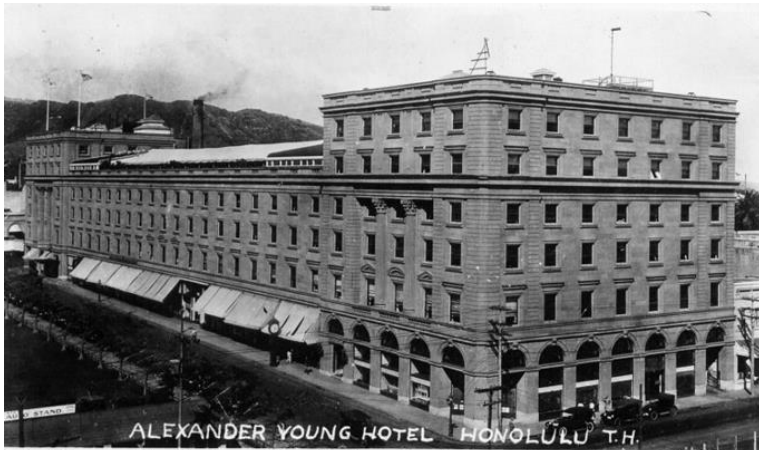

Myral's classroom of young men at Honolulu Vocational School

Honolulu Vocational School Picnic at Kailua, 1932

Honolulu Vocational School Chorus, June 1933

The Young Hotel where Myral played with Biggy's Orchestra for years.

The Young Hotel's Roof Garden where dances were held.

Loa often performed with the Honolulu Lyric Ensemble at the Academy of Art building, May 1938

The Clarks loved visiting LDS Church branches around the island. Myral (2nd from left) is here with the Pearl City Sunday School, ca. 1931

Myral (at piano) with the LDS Merry Makers – a band of Mormons from the Mainland John Fossum, O.Keola Murphy, Marvin Burgon, David England, Marlon Johnson, Myral, George Collins

Myral riding a horse that is pulling a plow to cultivate pineapple

German troops under the Third Reich docked The Karlsruhe, a German Training Ship, at Pearl Harbor on Feb. 17, 1934. German cadets disembarked, marched around, and saw the beaches. The Dotys (left), Myral and Loa (right)

The heavy, frequent rain often flooded the streets, but the Clark's car could easily drive through the floods. Myral waves from the window.

Myral and Loa. May 30, 1932

Myral with a tuna fish

Myral befriended everyone he met. This is Maui the Newsboy, from whom Myral often bought his paper.

Loa's parents, Emerett and J.I. Tolman holding newborn Margene

Myral with a surfboard

At The Academy of Arts building where Loa and her vocal group often performed, Dec. 1934

A House and a Harbor

Emerett (3rd from right) with other workers at the Logan Temple, ca. 1937

The songbook cover for the Community Sing

“Dick Maguire and Ben Doty inviting you to ‘Sing and Smile’ Mike Clark at the piano.”

The Hi-Y trip to the Volcano House. Myral is third man under the "O" of "Volcano" on the building.

Myral on a Hi-Y hike, ca. 1934

Margene and Robert on the beach, April 1938

The Clarks enjoying the beach at Boy Scout Camp, June 7, 1941

Myral and Margene beside the outdoor baptismal font at the Honolulu Tabernacle, late 1941

The 200 ft. spire and beacon on the Tabernacle was the 2nd tallest structure on the island for years.

The Tabernacle was built around beautiful trees on the lot.

The Clarks (right) enjoying a Sunday drive and picnic, April 1936

*Robert and Margene on a tractor near the Laie Temple,
June 20, 1942*

Construction of the new house began Aug 12, 1941

The new house begins to take shape

Margene and Robert in the Kewalo St house living room

Christmas 1941

Myral and Robert, 1941

A BASIC GASOLINE RATION		F 995100M
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION
CLARK, MYRAL G. <small>(NAME OF REGISTERED OWNER)</small>		1938 <small>(YEAR/MODEL)</small>
1721 KEWALO ST. <small>(R. F. D. OR STREET AND NUMBER)</small>		CHEV. <small>(MAKE)</small>
Honolulu T. H. <small>(CITY OR POST OFFICE) (STATE)</small>		SEDAN <small>(BODY TYPE)</small>
Oct. 6, 1943 <small>(DATE)</small>		E 400 <small>(VEHICLE LICENSE NO.)</small>
<small>(USE TAX STAMP No.)</small>		4230 <small>(STATE OF REGISTRATION)</small>

One of Myral's gasoline ration slips during the war

The sun-bleached blackout curtain the Clarks hung over their living room window to block out lights at night.

Myral after building a bomb shelter

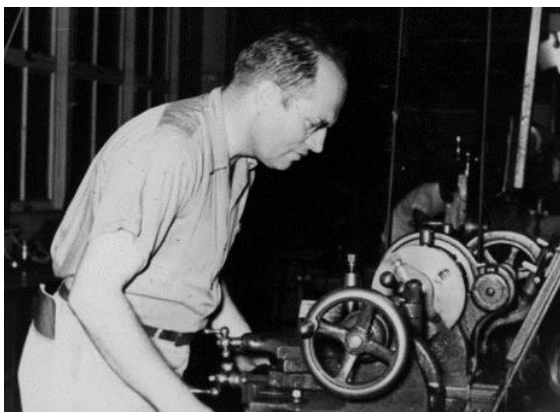

St. Andrew's Priory, the school where Loa taught

Loa leading the St. Andrew's Priory 6th grade chorus, June 1942

Myral and some members of the Quorum of the Seventy preparing land for planting taro root, Oct. 1943

Myral using some machinery at the Vocational School, 1944

Myral and Elder Hunt dressing up and goofing around, 1944

Myral playing the organ at Central Union Church in Honolulu, March 3, 1944

California Clarks

On the doorstep of 864 Mission St, Oct 1944

The kids in Loa's Cradle Roll class. Dickie is 4th from left.

*The Clarks and the Godfreys, Feb 1945
Myral, Loa, Robert, and Dale (son), Leah, Art*

Myral with his camera in front of the SLO high school where he taught photography classes during the 1945-46 school year

Hawthorne School where Myral taught 1946-1960

Myral (top, left) and his students at Hawthorne Elementary

Reindeer made of turkey wishbones

The bulletin board in Myral's classroom during the Hawaii unit displayed artwork and paper leis the students made.

The Clarks – Robert, Loa, Dick, Myral, Margene

Fiesta Days, May 1946

The Clarks in San Francisco, 1949

J.I. was thrilled to escape the Utah snow and spend winters in SLO with Loa and grandchildren.

Margene and Robert at the Utah State Agricultural College (the AC) chimes, Aug 1946

Myral and Dick out shooting with Ed

Loa and J.I. in his last years.

The Remund family in 1950. Ed is standing at center

Good friends in San Luis branch – Leah Godfrey, Lucille Remund, Loa Clark, Anna Dee Pacher, Alice Hutchings, Sister Burrell, Dorothy Jones, Sister Christensen

*Robert, Loa, Dick at Disneyland,
Aug 1956*

Loa, Ron, Margene, and Matt, Sept 4, 1961

The Clark siblings: Myral, Carlos, Ella, Lela, Lawrence, Wallace

Loa threw a surprise party for Myral after ward choir practice on July 13, 1960 at the old chapel.

Some of Myral's yearly diaries.

An advertisement in a Honolulu newspaper to advocate Hawaiian statehood, Nov 4, 1940

Grandma Loa

Loa in front of the Hessisches Landesmuseum in Darmstadt, Germany, Aug 1966

*Loa in front of Buckingham Palace Gardens,
Aug 1966*

